

The Audubon Society of Western Pennsylvania invites you to:

Todd Family Day

Saturday July 24

A Free Event

Programs and Walks:

- 9:00 AM Morning Bird Hike
- 10:00 AM Sneak Peek at Belle's Run Valley
- 11:00 AM Wild Edibles Presentation
- 12:00 PM Lunch, Picnic
- 1:00 PM Reptiles and Amphibians
- 2:00 PM Stream Program on Watson's Run
- 3:00 PM Introduction to Spiders
- 4:00 PM Fern Walk
- 5:00 PM Summer 2004 Research at Todd
- 6:00 PM Dinner, Campfire
- 7:00 PM Guest Speaker
- 8:00 PM Sunset Hike on Bircher's Hill
- 9:00 PM Owl Prowl
- 10:00 PM Moth Survey

Program Leaders include:

Jack Solomon of the Three Rivers Birding Club
Charles Bier of the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy
Terry Laux of the Buffalo Creek Valley and the Naturalist Educators of ASWP

Ongoing Displays:

- Important Bird Area #22, the Buffalo Creek Valley
- The Legacy of W. E. Clyde Todd
- Self-Guided Tree Hike Guides
- Nature Scavenger Hunt

Directions: Rt. 28 N, Exit 17, go right onto 356 N. At the light, go right onto Monroe Rd. At the Y, bear right onto Kepple Rd. Todd Sanctuary is 2 miles farther on the right.

Todd Family Day is an annual event full of fun and interesting programs held at Todd Sanctuary in Sarver. Come for a single program, spend the morning or afternoon, or stay for the whole day. All age groups are invited. There is no cost, but bring your own food if you are staying through the day.